Session News Focus: European macroeconomic releases, ECB/BOE news, Forex short-term futures (EUR/USD, GBP/USD), and Gold (XAU/USD) supply/demand zones.

SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- ECB Rate Hike Expectations: The European Central Bank (ECB) is widely expected to raise interest rates by a quarter-point to 2.50% on September 10, marking its second and likely final hike in the current cycle. This comes despite renewed geopolitical tensions and rising global bond yields.
- BOE Stance on Rates: The Bank of England (BOE) is anticipated to keep interest rates on hold this month. BOE Chief Economist Huw Pill warned about the increasing risk of central banks facing pressure to finance government deficits, alongside his push for a rate rise to mitigate Middle East-driven inflation risks. However, the subdued second-round effects from energy price surges due to the Iran war suggest the majority of the Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) will not vote for a hike in September. British businesses expect to increase prices at a slightly slower pace over the next year, with year-ahead wage growth holding steady.
- Inflation Drivers: The ECB notes that the current rise in inflation in 2026 is almost entirely driven by higher energy costs, differentiating it from the broader demand and supply-side drivers of the 2021-22 surge. Eurozone inflation accelerated to 3.3% in August, driven largely by energy costs, reinforcing the case for a September rate increase.
- US Federal Reserve Outlook: Market expectations for US rate hikes in 2026 are scaling back. A softer core CPI and PPI read from the US this week will influence the Fed's confidence in maintaining its current policy. The US economy has shown some signs of slowing, particularly in the labor market, which could limit demand for the dollar.

2. US & European Markets

- Wall Street Futures & Index Momentum: Wall Street indices showed mixed performance recently, with the Dow falling, S&P 500 slightly lower, and Nasdaq flat. Stronger-than-expected Non-Farm Payrolls reinforced the resilience of the US labor market, shifting focus back to inflation and Fed policy.
- Mega-Cap Tech Earnings & Semiconductors: Broadcom's AI chip revenue reportedly tripled, indicating a surge in custom AI ASICs. Global semiconductor equipment billings increased 23% year-over-year in Q2 2026, marking a second consecutive record quarter and reflecting accelerating demand for technology and capacity solutions to support AI investments. SUSS and Manz Asia announced a strategic collaboration for next-generation inkjet solutions in semiconductor manufacturing.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Sensex/Nifty Updates: Indian stock market indices, Sensex and Nifty 50, opened and traded in the green on Friday, September 4, 2026. However, on September 1, Sensex and Nifty experienced marginal declines, while the broader midcap index saw a sharper correction.
- FII/DII Institutional Flows: Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) turned net buyers on September 1, purchasing ₹1,143 crore, ending a three-day selling streak. Domestic Institutional Investors (DIIs) continued their strong support, purchasing ₹1,846 crore on September 1, providing a liquidity cushion against global volatility. On September 4, FIIs were net sellers of ₹3,111.94 crore in cash, while DIIs were net buyers of ₹8,930.12 crore.
- Nifty 50 Reshuffle: BSE Ltd is projected to enter the Nifty 50, and Wipro Ltd is expected to exit in the September 2026 reshuffle, potentially leading to significant passive flows.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- Crude Oil Geopolitics & OPEC+: OPEC+ is expected to keep its oil output policy unchanged for October at an upcoming meeting, having completed the unwinding of one layer of production cuts this month. Seven core OPEC+ members increased combined output by 188,000 barrels per day from September 2026, marking the final tranche of unwinding a 1.65 million bpd voluntary cut package. The Strait of Hormuz crisis and military conflict in the Middle East have severely disrupted global energy supply chains, causing Brent crude prices to surge past US$120 per barrel earlier this year.
- Gold Supply/Demand Drivers: Gold prices are forecast to rise to $4,900 per ounce by the end of 2026, driven by strong central bank demand diversifying reserves against geopolitical and financial risks. Central bank purchases averaged 50 tonnes per month in 2026, accelerating to 100 tonnes per month in June 2026. Investors are also recovering demand as expectations for US rate hikes scale back. However, gold prices recently dipped below $4300, and India's private-sector gold buying could sink due to high prices and import duties. Gold is down significantly from its January 2026 record high of $5,589.38 per ounce but still up about 24.48% over the past 12 months.
- Major Crypto Regulatory/Adoption Headlines: The SEC proposed "Regulation Crypto Assets" on August 18, 2026, aiming to create a framework for public funding of blockchain projects through crypto asset sales, with new offering exemptions and a conditional Safe Harbor. This proposal builds on the SEC's March 2026 interpretation. However, the crypto industry's "CLARITY Act" faces a major setback in the US House due to a canceled voting schedule, making it unlikely to pass before midterms. Europe's Markets in Crypto-Assets (MiCA) Regulation transitional period ended last month, but the European Commission is already reviewing MiCA for potential rewrites, as its original scope didn't adequately address stablecoin interest, DeFi, staking, and tokenized deposits.

STRATEGY-BASED DAILY TICKER SELECTION & SECTOR CONSTRAINTS

INDIAN EQUITIES (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Screen Nifty leaders using 50-SMA support bounces or 20/50 EMA golden crosses. Focus on sectors showing strong domestic institutional interest.

Ticker	Price (Illustrative)	Entry Zone (Illustrative)	Stop Loss (Illustrative)	Strategy & Selection Reason
ADANIENT	₹3,500	₹3,450 - ₹3,480 (50-SMA Support)	₹3,380	YTD top performer in Nifty 50. Assumed strong bounce off 50-SMA, indicating trend continuation and institutional accumulation.
BAJAJ-AUTO	₹6,200	₹6,150 - ₹6,180 (20/50 EMA Golden Cross)	₹6,080	YTD top performer. Assumed recent 20/50 EMA golden cross signaling bullish momentum and strong underlying demand in the auto sector.
RELIANCE	₹2,800	₹2,770 - ₹2,790 (50-SMA Support)	₹2,720	Leading mover in Nifty 50 with insurance and crude oil supporting factors. Assumed bounce off 50-SMA due to broad-based sectorial strength and DII support.

US EQUITIES

Large-Cap (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Screen using 21-day EMA pullbacks or 50-day SMA rejection strategy on mega-cap growth leaders.

Ticker	Price (Illustrative)	Entry Zone (Illustrative)	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
NVDA	$1,050	$1,020 - $1,035 (21-day EMA Pullback)	Long	Semiconductor sector strong demand and AI investment momentum. Assumed pullback to 21-day EMA offers an entry point in an uptrend.
AAPL	$195	$197 - $200 (50-day SMA Rejection)	Short	Potential for price rejection at the 50-day SMA after a weaker technical bounce, indicating short-term weakness for a mega-cap leader.

Mid-Cap & Small-Cap (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Screen using Stage-2 VCP or High Relative Volume (RVOL > 2.0) breakouts.

Ticker	Price (Illustrative)	Entry Zone (Illustrative)	Stop Loss (Illustrative)	Strategy & Selection Reason
SMCI	$920	Breakout above $910 (High RVOL > 2.0)	$880	Illustrative of a semiconductor-related mid-cap showing high relative volume, indicating strong institutional interest and potential for a breakout continuation.
MPWR	$600	Breakout above $595 (Stage-2 VCP)	$575	Illustrative of a strong small-cap exhibiting a Volatility Contraction Pattern (VCP) in Stage 2, signaling accumulation and readiness for an upward move.

CRYPTO FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Screen using 4H 21-EMA trend following and high-volume volatility breakouts. Consider the impact of new SEC regulations on the market.

Ticker	Price (Illustrative)	Entry Zone (Illustrative)	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
BTCUSD Perpetual	$68,000	$67,500 - $67,800 (4H 21-EMA Support)	Long	Assumed strong underlying bullish trend on the 4-hour chart, with price finding support at the 21-EMA, supported by recent regulatory clarity attempts.
ETHUSD Perpetual	$3,900	Breakout above $3,950 (High Volatility)	Long	Illustrative of a high-volume volatility breakout from a consolidation pattern, indicating renewed bullish interest following recent positive regulatory news.

COMMODITIES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Gold (XAU/USD) and WTI Crude Oil using Pivot & Fibonacci extension levels. Gold is forecast to climb, but has seen recent dips.

Ticker	Price (Illustrative)	Entry Zone (Illustrative)	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
XAU/USD	$4,350	$4,330 - $4,340 (Pivot Support / Fibonacci Retracement)	Long	Gold prices are expected to rise by year-end due to central bank demand, but recently experienced a dip. Entry at a key Fibonacci retracement level after recent consolidation for a long position.
WTI Crude Oil	$93.00	$93.50 - $94.00 (Fibonacci Extension Resistance)	Short	OPEC+ paused quota hikes after September, with recent geopolitical tensions impacting supply. Short entry near a Fibonacci extension resistance level, anticipating a short-term correction after recent volatility.

FOREX FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Short-Term (EUR/USD, GBP/USD)

Focus on ECB/BOE news and immediate technical levels.

Ticker	Price (Illustrative)	Entry Zone (Illustrative)	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
EUR/USD	1.1570	1.1590 - 1.1610 (Key Resistance Breakout)	Long	EUR/USD is coiled below a key resistance zone and has held pivotal support. A breakout above resistance (1.1598/1.1610) would suggest a broader recovery, especially with anticipated ECB rate hike. Historically, September is a strong month for EUR/USD.
GBP/USD	1.3510	1.3480 - 1.3500 (Breakdown below Support)	Short	GBP/USD is trading near 1.35 after retreating from above 1.3640. Uncertainty around BOE's cautious stance and potential dollar strength if US inflation remains sticky could lead to a retest of lower levels (e.g., 1.32).

Macro Carry Swings (USD/JPY, AUD/USD)

Leverage differential and global risk sentiment.

Ticker	Price (Illustrative)	Entry Zone (Illustrative)	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
USD/JPY	156.20	156.00 - 156.15 (Slight Pullback from Resistance)	Long	Continued interest rate differentials favoring the USD and rising intervention risk as USD/JPY approaches 161.00. Targeting a long position on a minor pullback within the broader uptrend.
AUD/USD	0.6650	0.6670 - 0.6685 (Rejection at Resistance)	Short	Global risk-off sentiment and potential for further dollar strength could weigh on commodity-linked currencies. Shorting at a clear resistance level for a swing trade.

INDIAN OPTIONS (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Nifty 50 / BankNifty 15-Minute Opening Range Breakouts (Call for Long, Put for Short).

Index	Expiry (Illustrative)	Strike (Illustrative)	Direction (Call/Put)	Strategy & Selection Reason
Nifty 50	Weekly	ATM	Call/Put (ORB)	Utilizing the 15-minute opening range breakout strategy. If Nifty breaks above the opening range high, buy ATM Call. If Nifty breaks below the opening range low, buy ATM Put. Tight stops at the opposite end of the breakout candle or middle of the range.
BankNifty	Weekly	ATM	Call/Put (ORB)	Applying the same 15-minute opening range breakout strategy to BankNifty, known for its intraday volatility. Buy Call on upside breakout, Put on downside breakout, with strict risk management.
