Current Session Highlight:  New York Session Pre-Open Briefing (1 Hr Before Open)

Session News Focus: Wall Street pre-market movers, US Federal Reserve news, mega-cap US stocks (NVDA, MSFT, TSLA), and WTI Crude Oil catalysts.

SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- The Federal Reserve is anticipated to maintain a cautious stance on interest rates, with recent inflation data showing mixed signals. Markets are pricing in a higher probability of a rate hold at the next FOMC meeting.
- European Central Bank officials continue to signal data-dependency for future policy moves, with recent PMI figures indicating a slowing economic recovery in the Eurozone.
- The Bank of Japan remains committed to its ultra-loose monetary policy, despite growing speculation about potential shifts in yield curve control as inflation pressures persist in parts of the economy.
- USD shows strength against major currencies ahead of US economic data releases, driven by safe-haven demand and anticipated Fed commentary.

2. US & European Markets

- US futures are showing modest gains pre-market, with tech-heavy Nasdaq leading. Investor sentiment is buoyed by corporate earnings optimism and anticipation of Fed remarks.
- Mega-cap tech stocks like NVDA, MSFT, and TSLA are seeing mixed activity in pre-market trading following recent analyst reports and sector-specific news. NVIDIA is reportedly experiencing increased demand in AI hardware, while Tesla faces competitive pressures in the EV market.
- Semiconductor sector remains a key focus, with supply chain discussions and potential new government subsidies influencing stock movements.
- European indices traded flat to slightly higher yesterday, digesting fresh inflation figures and comments from ECB policymakers.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Indian markets opened marginally lower, with Nifty 50 consolidating after recent gains. Focus remains on domestic corporate earnings and FII/DII flow dynamics.
- Certain mid-cap IT and infrastructure stocks are showing resilience, driven by positive order book updates.
- FIIs (Foreign Institutional Investors) exhibited net selling in yesterday's session, while DIIs (Domestic Institutional Investors) provided support through net buying.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- WTI Crude Oil prices are volatile amid ongoing geopolitical tensions in the Middle East and mixed signals regarding global demand outlook. OPEC+ supply decisions remain a critical catalyst.
- Gold (XAU/USD) holds steady above key support levels, benefiting from safe-haven flows and a weaker US dollar in early morning trade, despite potential headwinds from rising real yields.
- Bitcoin and Ethereum are trading in a narrow range, with market participants awaiting further clarity on US regulatory frameworks for digital assets.
- Major crypto adoption headlines continue to drive sentiment in smaller altcoins.

 STRATEGY-BASED DAILY TICKER SELECTION & SECTOR CONSTRAINTS

INDIAN EQUITIES (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Ticker	Sector	Strategy & Selection Reason
RELIANCE (Reliance Industries)	Conglomerate	Potential 50-SMA support bounce identified on daily charts, showing consolidation around a key moving average. Nifty leader with strong underlying fundamentals.
INFY (Infosys)	IT Services	Exhibiting a bullish 20/50 EMA golden cross on the daily timeframe, indicating positive short-to-medium term momentum. Strong institutional interest.

US EQUITIES

Large-Cap (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Sector	Strategy & Selection Reason
NVDA (NVIDIA)	Semiconductors	Pre-market strength suggests upward momentum. Monitoring for potential 21-day EMA pullback entry on intraday charts if initial buying pressure fades, or a breakout past recent highs.
TSLA (Tesla)	Automotive/EV	Showing weakness pre-market due to competitive news. Watching for a 50-day SMA rejection strategy for a potential short entry, or a bounce off oversold levels for a long scalp if support holds.

Mid-Cap & Small-Cap (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Ticker	Sector	Strategy & Selection Reason
SMCI (Super Micro Computer)	Information Technology	Exhibiting Stage-2 VCP (Volatility Contraction Pattern) on weekly charts, indicating strong accumulation and potential for an impending breakout above resistance with high RVOL.
PLTR (Palantir Technologies)	Software	High Relative Volume (RVOL > 2.0) observed pre-market following positive news. Monitoring for breakout above intraday resistance on increased volume.

CRYPTO FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Category	Strategy & Selection Reason
BTC/USD (Bitcoin)	Large Cap Crypto	Following 4H 21-EMA trend; currently consolidating above EMA, indicating potential for a continuation long if momentum holds, or a short on rejection below.
ETH/USD (Ethereum)	Large Cap Crypto	High volume volatility breakout potential. Observing for a decisive move above or below recent range with significant volume, following the 4H 21-EMA for trend confirmation.

COMMODITIES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Commodity	Strategy & Selection Reason
XAU/USD (Gold)	Precious Metal	Holding strong above key daily Pivot Point support (e.g., $2300). Looking for long entries on bounces from this level, targeting Fibonacci extension levels (e.g., 1.618 extension) on further upside.
WTI/USD (Crude Oil)	Energy	Trading below daily Pivot Point resistance (e.g., $85). Potential short entry on rejection from this level, targeting downside Fibonacci retracement levels. Long if it breaks above and consolidates.

FOREX FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Short-Term

Ticker	Currency Pair	Strategy & Selection Reason
EUR/USD	Major Forex	Watching for intraday range breakouts. Potential long on break above 1.0800, targeting 1.0830; short on break below 1.0770, targeting 1.0740. Key data releases expected to drive volatility.
GBP/USD	Major Forex	Intraday consolidation. Looking for breakout of 15-minute range. Long above 1.2750, short below 1.2720. Volatility expected around UK economic data.

Macro Carry Swings

Ticker	Currency Pair	Strategy & Selection Reason
USD/JPY	Major Forex	Long-term carry trade potential given interest rate differentials. Monitoring for pullbacks to key support levels (e.g., 147.00) for long entries, capitalizing on positive swap rates.
AUD/USD	Major Forex	Negative carry trade candidate on strength. Looking for short entries on rallies towards resistance (e.g., 0.6550) if RBA maintains dovish stance relative to the Fed.

INDIAN OPTIONS (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Index	Strategy & Selection Reason
NIFTY 50 (Weekly Expiry)	Equity Index	Implementing 15-Minute Opening Range Breakout strategy. Buy Call option if Nifty breaks above the opening 15-min high; Buy Put option if Nifty breaks below the opening 15-min low.
BANKNIFTY (Weekly Expiry)	Banking Index	Implementing 15-Minute Opening Range Breakout strategy. Buy Call option if BankNifty breaks above the opening 15-min high; Buy Put option if BankNifty breaks below the opening 15-min low.
