Daily Multi-Asset Trading Blueprint & Level Execution Manual

Date: Monday, August 10, 2026

Session: New York Session Pre-Open Briefing (1 Hr Before Open)

Focus: Wall Street pre-market movers, US Federal Reserve news, mega-cap US stocks (NVDA, MSFT, TSLA), and WTI Crude Oil catalysts.

SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- US Federal Reserve: New Fed Chair Kevin Warsh has implemented a strategy of less forward guidance, leading to increased market uncertainty. Despite a surprise drop in July US payrolls, markets are still pricing in a roughly 50-50 chance of a Fed rate hike next month, with Treasury yields remaining only marginally lower. There are ongoing concerns about Fed independence as President Trump has reportedly demanded answers from Governor Lisa Cook regarding mortgage allegations. The upcoming CPI report on Wednesday is deemed critical for shaping rate hike expectations, especially as the annual core rate is expected to tick lower.
- Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA): Financial markets are largely forecasting a "hawkish hold" from the RBA at its August meeting, as softer-than-expected inflation data suggests the cash rate may have peaked.
- Eurozone: The sentix Economic Sentiment Index for the eurozone continued its recovery in August, rising for the fourth consecutive month and returning to positive territory.
- China: China's central bank has vowed to expand the yuan's international use as part of a five-year plan.

2. US & European Markets

- Wall Street Sentiment: US equity futures are pointing modestly higher, carrying positive sentiment from last week where stocks ended at record highs following weaker-than-expected US jobs data, which eased concerns about an immediate Federal Reserve rate hike. However, Wall Street opened flat as investors monitor developments in the Middle East and prepare for crucial inflation data and earnings reports this week.
- Pre-market Movers: Volato Group (SOAR) and Archer Aviation (ACHR) are showing significant gains in pre-market trading, with Volato up by 29.48% and Archer Aviation up by 15.92%. Several other industrials stocks are also moving in Monday's pre-market session.
- Mega-cap Tech: Netflix (NFLX) and Amazon (AMZN) shares gained on Friday, with Netflix reporting mixed Q2 results and Amazon showing growth. Companies like Super Micro Computer (SMCI) and Cisco Systems (CSCO) are among those reporting earnings this week.
- Retail Sales: US retail sales rose for the tenth consecutive month in July, indicating continued consumer spending despite mixed economic indicators, supported by a low unemployment rate and steady wage gains.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Benchmark Indices: Indian equity markets opened mildly positive on Monday, following strong global cues. The Sensex and Nifty 50 ended marginally higher after trading in a narrow range throughout the session, with the Sensex up 0.06% and Nifty 50 up 0.05% at the close.
- Broader Markets: Broader markets ended mixed, with the Nifty Midcap 100 index gaining 0.62% and the Nifty Smallcap 100 index ending 0.27% lower.
- Sectoral Performance: The Nifty PSU Bank index declined nearly 2% and was the worst performer. Nifty Pharma and Nifty FMCG also underperformed, while Nifty Realty outperformed with a 1.35% rise. IT stocks helped limit the downside, with the Nifty IT index climbing 0.4%.
- Corporate News: Mahindra & Mahindra's total sales jumped 24.8% year-on-year in July 2026, with Scorpio leading SUV volumes. Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) stated it found no credible evidence of a systems breach after alerts flagged possible employee data exposure, noting the information appeared to be over four years old.
- FII/DII Flows: Foreign investors continue to provide support to Indian equities.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- WTI Crude Oil: Crude oil prices are mixed but generally higher due to renewed uncertainty over the Strait of Hormuz, with Brent crude above $84 and WTI near $78.75, just below the $79-$80 technical resistance area. Iran has ruled out direct talks with the US, citing violations of an interim peace pact, but an agreement with Oman on a shipping route through the Strait of Hormuz is reportedly "very close." WTI crude oil is running into resistance at its long-term descending trend line near $78.70, and analysts suggest a decisive break above $79-$80 would strengthen the near-term recovery.
- Gold: Gold is consolidating its breakout, with a bullish case building after finding buyers on dips below $4,000 an ounce through June and July, leading to a sharp breakout in early August. Gold posted a powerful rally last week, bringing it back to positive territory for the year.
- Crypto: Bitcoin is trading near $65,017 (around flat over 24 hours), Ether near $1,917.56 (slight decline), and Solana near $76.64 (slight gain). Total crypto market cap is about $2.30 trillion. Market optimism is partly linked to murmurs of a potential Iran-Oman deal regarding the Strait of Hormuz. The CFTC has issued warnings to event-contract venues regarding "American" odds displays.
