SESSION NEWS FOCUS: Focus heavily on Wall Street pre-market movers, US Federal Reserve news, mega-cap US stocks (NVDA, MSFT, TSLA), and WTI Crude Oil catalysts.

SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- Global markets are currently experiencing high commodity prices and elevated sovereign yields, primarily driven by the ongoing conflict in the Middle East and inflationary pressures.
- Hawkish rhetoric from central banks, particularly the US Federal Reserve, has also contributed to market sentiment.
- Federal Reserve Chair Kevin Warsh's recent comments at Jackson Hole have bolstered expectations for a September rate hike, with market-implied odds surging from 35% to 60%.
- Investors are closely awaiting the US August jobs report, scheduled for September 4, and euro area inflation and unemployment figures, which will be crucial in determining future monetary policy decisions.
- The US Dollar has seen some strengthening as investors digested Fed Chair Warsh's hawkish speech.

2. US & European Markets

- US stock futures are pointing to a lower open on Monday morning, influenced by a severe escalation in the US-Iran conflict and rising trade tensions with Canada.
- Dow Jones futures are down 0.25%, Nasdaq 100 futures are down 0.16%, and S&P 500 futures are down 0.24% in premarket trading.
- Mega-cap tech stocks, including Nvidia (NVDA), Microsoft (MSFT), and Tesla (TSLA), are closely watched. Nvidia's stock has shown some cooling momentum, trading below its 20-day EMA but above its 50-day and 200-day EMAs.
- European shares eased lower as US-Iran strikes pushed oil prices above $90 a barrel, raising concerns over inflation.
- The S&P 500 Index closed down by -0.25% on Friday, with the Nasdaq 100 Index also closing lower.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Indian equities are expected to open weak, with GIFT Nifty signaling a cautious start due to global sentiment and Fed rate signals.
- Both the Sensex and Nifty 50 opened lower on Monday, driven by weak global cues, elevated crude prices, and renewed US-Iran tensions.
- The Nifty 50 is trading below its 50-day Exponential Moving Average (EMA), with 24,025-24,000 acting as a key support zone.
- Foreign Portfolio Investors (FPIs) have shown sustained interest, investing ₹30,919 crore in Indian equities in August.
- Q1 FY27 GDP data for India is due today, which will offer clues on the economy's resilience.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- WTI Crude Oil prices climbed above $85 per barrel, starting the week higher after the US military targeted Iranian rocket launchers, reviving fears over shipping disruptions in the Strait of Hormuz.
- Brent crude futures surged 5.00% to $90.43 a barrel.
- Gold (XAU/USD) is trading at $4,439.47 as of August 31, 2026. Geopolitical events, inflation rates, and shifts in interest rates continue to influence gold prices.
