Date: Tuesday, September 15, 2026

Session:  New York Session Pre-Open Briefing (1 Hr Before Open)

Role: Lead Quantitative Strategist & Institutional Portfolio Manager

Session News Focus: Wall Street pre-market movers, US Federal Reserve news, mega-cap US stocks (NVDA, MSFT, TSLA), and WTI Crude Oil catalysts.

SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- The Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) began its two-day policy meeting today, September 15, 2026, with a decision expected tomorrow, September 16. Futures traders are pricing in a 93% chance of a 25-basis-point interest rate hike to a target range of 3.75% to 4.00%, marking the first hike since July 2023.
- Expectations for a rate hike are largely driven by a steady labor market and elevated energy prices contributing to persistent inflation.
- Yields on U.S. Treasuries are rising, with the 10-year Treasury yield surging to 5.02%, its highest level since 2007, reflecting concerns over inflation and competition for capital from AI hyperscalers.
- The European Central Bank (ECB) raised its rates by a quarter point on September 10, influencing global interest rate expectations.
- A closed Board Meeting of the Federal Reserve is also scheduled for today to discuss monetary policy issues.

2. US & European Markets

- Wall Street futures are pointing to a slightly negative open, influenced by surging oil prices and rising Treasury yields, as markets prepare for the Fed's rate decision.
- Pre-market Movers (Gainers): Etsy (ETSY) gained over 3% on an Oppenheimer upgrade, Celanese (CE) rose on analyst upgrades and debt reduction plans, and Integra LifeSciences Holdings (IART) advanced ahead of a healthcare conference presentation. Semiconductor stocks like Intel (INTC), Snap (SNAP), and KLA Corp (KLAC) are also showing pre-market gains.
- Pre-market Movers (Losers): Enova International (ENVA) tumbled significantly after withdrawing bank regulatory applications, Dave & Buster's Entertainment (PLAY) sank after a Q2 loss and revenue miss, and cryptocurrency exchange Coinbase Global (COIN) lost ground ahead of the Senate vote on the CLARITY Act.
- Concerns regarding artificial intelligence safety and its potential impact on markets continue to be a talking point.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Indian benchmark indices, Sensex and Nifty, ended sharply lower on Tuesday, September 15, with both falling over 1%. The Nifty 50 closed at 23,118.60, its lowest in five months.
- The decline was primarily driven by elevated crude oil prices, rising global bond yields, and investor caution ahead of the US Federal Reserve meeting.
- Broader markets underperformed, with Nifty Midcap and Smallcap indices down over 2%, indicating strong risk aversion.
- Most sectoral indices closed in the red, with Realty (-4.04%), Chemicals (-3.42%), and Financial Services Ex-Bank (-2.77%) being the worst performers.
- However, IT stocks bucked the broader market trend, with the Nifty IT index gaining 2.19%. Tata Consultancy Services, Infosys, HCL Tech, and Tech Mahindra saw significant gains. HDFC Bank also outperformed.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- WTI Crude Oil prices remain elevated, with Brent crude trading over $107 a barrel due to the ongoing Iran conflict disrupting oil exports and recent attacks on Saudi Arabian energy infrastructure.
- OPEC+ held a virtual meeting on September 6 and decided to maintain October 2026 production levels at September levels, with the focus now shifting to new production quotas for 2027.
- Gold futures fell 0.73% to $4,320.10 an ounce in early trading today.
- The cryptocurrency market is closely watching the U.S. Senate, which is scheduled to hold a procedural vote today, September 15, 2026, on the Digital Asset Market CLARITY Act. This bill aims to provide clearer federal regulatory oversight for digital assets.
- However, several state attorneys general are urging the Senate to reject the CLARITY Act in its current form, arguing it could limit states' ability to oversee the crypto market and protect investors.
- Coinbase Global (COIN) was a pre-market loser, down 4.59%, ahead of the Senate vote.

🎯 STRATEGY-BASED DAILY TICKER SELECTION & SECTOR CONSTRAINTS

INDIAN EQUITIES (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Screen Nifty leaders using 50-SMA support bounces or 20/50 EMA golden crosses.

Ticker	Direction	Entry Level	Stop Loss	Target	Strategy & Selection Reason
INFY (Infosys)	Long	~1650 INR	~1620 INR	~1700 INR	Selected based on "Nifty leaders using 50-SMA support bounce". Infosys, part of the Nifty IT index, bucked the broader market sell-off today, showing relative strength. This suggests it may be finding support at its 50-SMA (or a key moving average), indicating a potential bounce opportunity in a sector showing resilience.

US EQUITIES

Large-Cap (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Screen using 21-day EMA pullbacks or 50-day SMA rejection strategy on mega-cap growth leaders.

Ticker	Direction	Entry Level	Stop Loss	Target	Strategy & Selection Reason
NVDA (NVIDIA Corp)	Long / Short (Bi-directional)	Long: ~1150 USD Short: ~1180 USD	Long: ~1130 USD Short: ~1200 USD	Long: ~1200 USD Short: ~1130 USD	Applied "21-day EMA pullback" for a potential long entry. Amid broader market caution, NVDA, a mega-cap tech leader, could see a temporary dip to its 21-day EMA, offering a rebound opportunity. Alternatively, if it rejects the 50-day SMA on a bounce, it presents a short opportunity. We remain flexible given overall market volatility.

Mid-Cap & Small-Cap (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Screen using Stage-2 VCP or High Relative Volume (RVOL > 2.0) breakouts.

Ticker	Direction	Entry Level	Stop Loss	Target	Strategy & Selection Reason
ETSY (Etsy Inc.)	Long	~90 USD	~87 USD	~95 USD	Selected as a "High Relative Volume (RVOL > 2.0) breakout" candidate. Etsy was a notable pre-market gainer today (+3.22%) following an analyst upgrade. Strong pre-market momentum with potentially high relative volume indicates institutional interest for a Stage-2 breakout.

CRYPTO FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Screen using 4H 21-EMA trend following and high-volume volatility breakouts.

Ticker	Direction	Entry Level	Stop Loss	Target	Strategy & Selection Reason
BTC/USD (Bitcoin)	Long / Short (Bi-directional)	Long: ~76,500 USD Short: ~77,500 USD	Long: ~75,500 USD Short: ~78,500 USD	Long: ~78,000 USD Short: ~76,000 USD	Applying "4H 21-EMA trend following" and "high-volume volatility breakouts". With the US Senate procedural vote on the CLARITY Act today, Bitcoin is likely to experience increased volatility. We will trade breakouts above or breakdowns below key short-term levels, confirming with high volume.

COMMODITIES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Gold (XAU/USD) and WTI Crude Oil using Pivot & Fibonacci extension levels.

Ticker	Direction	Entry Level	Stop Loss	Target	Strategy & Selection Reason
XAU/USD (Gold)	Short	~4320 USD/oz	~4335 USD/oz	~4290 USD/oz	Gold futures fell today, reflecting broad market risk aversion and USD strength driven by rising bond yields. A short position initiated near intraday resistance, identified by pivot points or Fibonacci retracement levels, targeting lower Fibonacci extensions.
WTI Crude Oil	Long	~92.50 USD/bbl	~91.00 USD/bbl	~95.00 USD/bbl	WTI Crude Oil remains elevated due to geopolitical tensions (Iran war, Saudi attacks) and OPEC+ maintaining production levels. A long position on a pullback to a key support pivot or Fibonacci retracement level, targeting recent highs or extension levels, capitalizing on supply concerns.

FOREX FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Short-Term (EUR/USD, GBP/USD) & Macro Carry Swings (USD/JPY, AUD/USD).

Ticker	Direction	Entry Level	Stop Loss	Target	Strategy & Selection Reason
EUR/USD (Short-Term)	Short	~1.1540	~1.1580	~1.1480	The Euro is under pressure, extending its slide against the US Dollar due to rising US Treasury yields and increased dollar demand. Selling into rallies towards short-term resistance (e.g., 20-day EMA or broken support now acting as resistance) is favored.
USD/JPY (Long-Term Carry)	Long	~148.80	~147.50	~151.00	With the Federal Reserve poised for a rate hike and US bond yields rising, the interest rate differential continues to favor the USD against the JPY, making it an attractive carry trade. Long position on minor pullbacks, holding for an extended period.

INDIAN OPTIONS (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Nifty 50 / BankNifty 15-Minute Opening Range Breakouts (Call for Long, Put for Short).

Ticker	Direction	Option Type	Entry Trigger	Stop Loss	Target	Strategy & Selection R
Nifty 50 (Intraday)	Bi-directional	Call (Long) Put (Short)	Break above 15-min ORB High / Break below 15-min ORB Low	Opposite end of 15-min ORB	1:2 Risk:Reward	Executing the 15-minute Opening Range Breakout (ORB) strategy on Nifty 50. This involves identifying the high and low of the first 15-minute candle (9:15 AM IST). A breakout above the high triggers a long (Call option), while a breakout below the low triggers a short (Put option). This strategy capitalizes on early market momentum and price discovery. With Nifty's recent volatility, the ORB can capture significant intraday movement.
BankNifty (Intraday)	Bi-directional	Call (Long) Put (Short)	Break above 15-min ORB High / Break below 15-min ORB Low	Opposite end of 15-min ORB	1:2 Risk:Reward	Similar to Nifty 50, applying the 15-minute Opening Range Breakout (ORB) strategy for BankNifty. BankNifty is highly liquid and prone to significant intraday movement, making it suitable for this strategy. Entry on a confirmed breakout with strong volume beyond the 15-minute range, using the rule of 1:2 for stop loss placement.
