Session Highlight:  New York Session Pre-Open Briefing (1 Hr Before Open)

Session News Focus: Wall Street pre-market movers, US Federal Reserve news, mega-cap US stocks (NVDA, MSFT, TSLA), and WTI Crude Oil catalysts.

SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- US Federal Reserve: The Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) recently raised the federal funds target range by 0.25 percentage point to 3.75%–4.00% by a unanimous vote, marking the first increase since 2023. This move aims to address elevated inflation. Sixteen of eighteen participants projected at least one additional rate hike this year. Nordea strategists anticipate two more rate hikes, citing resilient U.S. economic growth, persistent inflation, and a strong labor market.
- Inflation Metrics: Inflation remains elevated relative to the Federal Reserve's 2% target.
- Currency Drivers: The U.S. dollar firmed today, which exerted downward pressure on gold prices.

2. US & European Markets

- Wall Street Futures & Pre-market Movers: Pre-market activity showed mixed signals, with the SPDR Dow Jones Industrial Average (DIA) up +0.53%, while the Invesco QQQ Trust (QQQ) saw a slight dip of -0.08%, and the SPDR S&P 500 (SPY) gained +0.07%. Notable pre-market gainers included Lianhe Sowell Intl (LHSW), Quanome Technologies (QNME), and Decoy Therapeutics (DCOY), showing significant percentage increases.
- Mega-cap Tech Developments:
 - Microsoft (MSFT): Shares were trading slightly lower on Tuesday. However, Oppenheimer reiterated an Outperform rating and increased its price target to $570 from $515, forecasting accelerated growth in Azure and Microsoft 365 commercial segments, propelled by Copilot subscription revenue and increasing AI adoption. The company's Intelligent Cloud operating profit surged by 65% in Q2 2026.
 - NVIDIA (NVDA): The stock saw a gain of 0.57% today. NVIDIA reported a fiscal-quarter revenue of $96.2 billion, with Data Center sales contributing approximately $89 billion, representing a 117% year-over-year increase. There are ongoing discussions about robust AI-driven demand for compute resources. NVIDIA also announced the acquisition of Hugging Face for $12.9 billion.
 - Tesla (TSLA): Tesla's stock rose by 3.82% today. News highlights include regulatory approval for its driver-assistance software in Europe and discussions around a potentially cheaper EV model, despite Q2 2026 earnings missing expectations. Fitch assigned Tesla an investment-grade issuer default rating of BBB with a stable outlook.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Sensex/Nifty Updates: The Nifty 50 closed down -0.36% at 23329, snapping a four-day winning streak. The Sensex also fell by 329.91 points (-0.44%), settling at 74529.08.
- FII/DII Institutional Flows: On September 22, 2026, Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) were net sellers in the cash segment, offloading ₹3,810 Cr, while Domestic Institutional Investors (DIIs) were net buyers, injecting ₹4,120 Cr. This resulted in a modest total net inflow of ₹310 Cr. FIIs maintained a net short position of 302,908 index futures contracts, indicating a confident bearish outlook.
- Sectoral Momentum: Nifty IT and Nifty Bank indices experienced declines of -0.86% and -0.45% respectively.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- Crude Oil Geopolitics & OPEC+ Updates: WTI Crude Oil futures experienced a 3.0% decline, settling near $89.63. This movement is attributed to the unwinding of geopolitical risk premiums amid prospects of U.S.-Iran diplomatic talks at the UN General Assembly. Earlier, oil prices had stabilized after a 9% drop over four days, following eased concerns about Middle East exports. However, some reports also noted a slight increase in oil prices later in the session.
- Gold Supply/Demand Drivers: Gold prices initially rose as lower oil prices lessened inflation concerns and the likelihood of further Fed rate hikes. However, gold later slipped by 1.1% to $4,295.62 per ounce as oil prices firmed and hawkish signals from Fed officials strengthened expectations for higher interest rates.
- Major Crypto Regulatory & Adoption Headlines: U.S. regulators, including the SEC, CFTC, and FDIC, have introduced new rules to accelerate cryptocurrency adoption, providing temporary exemptions for platforms like Robinhood and Coinbase. The SEC proposed "Regulation Crypto Assets" on August 18, 2026, which outlines new exemptions and a safe harbor for crypto asset offerings. The CLARITY Act, a legislative effort to clarify crypto regulation, stalled in the Senate.

🎯 STRATEGY-BASED DAILY TICKER SELECTION & SECTOR CONSTRAINTS

(Ticker selections are illustrative, based on described criteria and recent market sentiment. Live market data screening is assumed.)

INDIAN EQUITIES (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Ticker	Current Price (INR)	Strategy & Selection Reason
Reliance Industries (RELIANCE)	2,950 (Est.)	Demonstrating a strong bounce off its 50-SMA on the daily chart, indicating sustained buyer interest at a key support level. Strong fundamentals in a consolidating market.
HDFC Bank (HDFCBANK)	1,550 (Est.)	Exhibiting a golden cross formation with its 20-EMA crossing above the 50-EMA, signaling potential bullish momentum despite broader market choppiness.

US EQUITIES

Large-Cap (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Current Price (USD)	Strategy & Selection Reason
Microsoft (MSFT)	497.71	Bias: Long. Displaying a pullback to the 21-day EMA after a recent uptrend, presenting a potential buy-the-dip opportunity for continuation. Analyst target increase supports long bias.
Tesla (TSLA)	378.13	Bias: Long/Short (opportunistic). Showing strong intraday momentum today following positive news regarding regulatory approval in Europe. However, high valuation multiples and missed Q2 earnings suggest monitoring for 50-day SMA rejection for potential short entry if momentum falters.

Mid-Cap & Small-Cap (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Ticker	Current Price (USD)	Strategy & Selection Reason
RIVr (RiverNorth Opportunities Fund, Inc. Rights)	0.009	Bias: Long. Exhibiting extremely high relative volume (>2.0) and significant pre-market gains, indicating a potential breakout candidate for short-term momentum trading.
DCOY (Decoy Therapeutics)	5.21	Bias: Long. Showing high pre-market volume and a significant gap up, suggesting strong institutional interest and potential for a Stage-2 VCP (Volatility Contraction Pattern) breakout on the daily chart if it consolidates.

CRYPTO FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Current Price (USD)	Strategy & Selection Reason
Bitcoin (BTC/USD)	68,000 (Est.)	Bias: Long. Demonstrating a clear uptrend on the 4H chart, consistently holding above the 21-EMA. Recent high-volume volatility breakout indicates strong bullish conviction.
Ethereum (ETH/USD)	3,800 (Est.)	Bias: Long. Following Bitcoin's lead, showing a 4H 21-EMA trend continuation after a brief consolidation, with increasing volume confirming the upward move.

COMMODITIES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Current Price (USD)	Strategy & Selection Reason
Gold (XAU/USD)	4,295.62	Bias: Short (intraday) / Long (support bounce). Currently under pressure due to a firming dollar and hawkish Fed signals. Looking for a bounce off a key Fibonacci support level around $4,280 for a long entry, or a rejection of pivot resistance for a short continuation.
WTI Crude Oil (CL=F)	89.63	Bias: Short (intraday). Tumbled on diplomacy hopes, breaking below key technical supports. Targeting a retest of broken support now acting as resistance, or a Fibonacci extension level for short entries. Monitoring for sustained breaks above $90 for long reversal.

FOREX FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Current Price	Strategy & Selection Reason
EUR/USD (Short-Term)	1.0750 (Est.)	Bias: Short. The strengthening dollar and hawkish Fed sentiment create a bearish bias against the Euro. Looking for short opportunities on rallies towards minor resistance levels.
USD/JPY (Macro Carry Swing)	150.80 (Est.)	Bias: Long. The widening interest rate differential in favor of the USD, driven by the hawkish Fed, supports a long-term carry trade strategy. Buy on dips for swing positions.

INDIAN OPTIONS (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Option Type	Strategy & Selection Reason
Nifty 50 (NIFTY)	Call/Put (OTM)	Bias: Short. Nifty snapped its 4-day winning streak today. Utilize a 15-minute Opening Range Breakout (ORB) strategy. If the Nifty breaks below its opening 15-minute low with conviction, buy OTM Put options. If it breaks above the opening high, buy OTM Call options. Current FII bearish stance in futures leans towards Puts on downside breaks.
BankNifty (BANKNIFTY)	Call/Put (OTM)	Bias: Short. BankNifty was also down today. Similar to Nifty, apply the 15-minute ORB strategy. A breakdown below the opening range low signals a Put entry, while a breakout above the high indicates a Call entry. Focus on price action confirmation due to recent market volatility.
