Lead Quantitative Strategist & Institutional Portfolio Manager: Gemini AI

Current Session Highlight: 🇬🇧 London Session Pre-Open Briefing (1 Hr Before Open)

Session News Focus: European macroeconomic releases, ECB/BOE news, Forex short-term futures (EUR/USD, GBP/USD), and Gold (XAU/USD) supply/demand zones.

📰 SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- Global inflationary pressures remain persistent, with U.S. CPI at 3.7% in September, influencing central bank hawkishness.
- Markets are pricing in a "higher for longer" policy stance or further rate hikes from the Federal Reserve into early 2027.
- The FOMC will hold its policy meeting on October 27-28, with a high probability of rates remaining unchanged, though a December hike is largely anticipated.
- The European Central Bank and Bank of Japan monetary policy meetings are scheduled for October 29-30, and their outcomes will be closely watched for market direction.
- Rising U.S. Treasury yields are a key factor impacting gold prices, increasing the opportunity cost of holding non-yielding bullion.
- OPEC has downgraded its global oil demand growth forecast for 2026 for the fifth consecutive month but raised its projection for 2027.

2. US & European Markets

- Wall Street futures indicate a cautious start following a recent tech selloff.
- Mega-cap tech earnings from Alphabet, Microsoft, and Amazon are expected next week, with investor focus on cloud growth and AI integration.
- The U.S. has designated helium as a critical material due to its indispensable role in semiconductor manufacturing, with federal funding bolstering the sector.
- SK Hynix has canceled the IPO of its Solidigm unit amidst regulatory and shareholder opposition, reflecting growing investor unease in the AI boom.
- Broadcom (AVGO) reported impressive Q3 earnings, with AI semiconductor revenue surging and guidance raised for fiscal 2026 and 2027, making it a focus for hedge funds.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Indian equity markets (Sensex and Nifty) extended their losing streak for the fourth consecutive session, pressured by rising crude oil prices and persistent foreign institutional investor (FII) outflows.
- Mid-cap and small-cap stocks experienced sharper declines, reflecting broader market weakness and investor caution.
- Several companies announced Q2FY27 results today, including IDFC First Bank, Kotak Mahindra, and JK Cement. Infosys reported a 6.2% rise in net profit but cut its FY27 revenue growth guidance. Adani Power's Q2 net profit more than doubled.
- FIIs continued to offload equities, while Domestic Institutional Investors (DIIs) provided some buying support.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- Crude oil prices are surging, with Brent crude hitting over $114 per barrel and WTI crude trading around $103, driven by escalating Middle East tensions and Houthi attacks on Saudi Arabia's oil infrastructure.
- WTI Crude Oil is showing a strong bullish bias, having broken resistance at $100.70 and is expected to rise further towards the $106.70 resistance level.
- Gold (XAU/USD) is trading around $3,995, having slipped below the $4,000 mark for the first time since mid-July, with technical indicators pointing to a bearish short-term outlook. However, a potential bullish flag pattern is noted within a long-term uptrend, with key support between $4,000-$4,120.
- The overall cryptocurrency market cap has seen a slight decrease, with Bitcoin (BTC) trading around $80,754.
- Top crypto gainers in the last 24 hours include OriginTrail (TRAC) (+10.06%), Akedo (AKE) (+16%), Pepe (PEPE), and Pearl (PEARL), driven by specific catalysts and high trading volumes. XRP has underperformed in 2026 but has a history of parabolic rallies.
- U.S. crypto regulation is advancing, with the OCC finalizing rules for payment stablecoins under the GENIUS Act, providing a clearer framework for issuers. The SEC's proposed crypto custody rules had a comment deadline of October 20, 2026.

🎯 STRATEGY-BASED DAILY TICKER SELECTION & SECTOR CONSTRAINTS

(Note: Ticker selection is illustrative based on reported market conditions. Live charting and real-time indicator calculations are required for final execution.)

INDIAN EQUITIES (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

| Ticker | Action | Strategy | Strategy & Selection Reason |
|---|---|---|---|
| ADANIPOWER | Long | 50-SMA Support Bounce | Strong Q2FY27 results with profit more than doubling, demonstrating robust operational performance and increased power demand. Candidate for a support bounce on healthy volume. |
| INFY (Infosys) | Long | 20/50 EMA Golden Cross | Despite cutting FY27 guidance, the IT sector has shown resilience. Looking for a potential golden cross confirmation on recovery from recent dips, indicating a bullish trend reversal. |

US EQUITIES

Large-Cap (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

| Ticker | Action | Strategy | Strategy & Selection Reason |
|---|---|---|---|
| AVGO (Broadcom) | Long | 21-day EMA Pullback | Strong AI semiconductor revenue growth and positive analyst sentiment. Looking for a healthy pullback to the 21-day EMA as a buying opportunity in its established uptrend. |
| MSFT (Microsoft) | Long / Short | 50-day SMA Rejection / Pullback | Upcoming Q1 earnings. Potential for a 50-day SMA rejection if pre-earnings jitters lead to a sell-off, or a 21-day EMA pullback for continuation of its strong software/ cloud momentum. |

Mid-Cap & Small-Cap (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

| Ticker | Action | Strategy | Strategy & Selection Reason |
|---|---|---|---|
| (To be identified live) | Long | Stage-2 VCP or High RVOL > 2.0 Breakout | Screening for US mid/small-cap stocks exhibiting Stage-2 Volume Contraction Pattern (VCP) or high Relative Volume (RVOL > 2.0) breakouts, indicating strong accumulation and potential for upward momentum. Specific tickers require real-time scanning. |

CRYPTO FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

| Ticker | Action | Strategy | Strategy & Selection Reason |
|---|---|---|---|
| TRAC (OriginTrail) | Long | High-Volume Volatility Breakout | Reported as a top gainer with a 10.06% price increase. Targeting entries on confirmed high-volume breakouts following consolidation, riding momentum on the 4H 21-EMA trend. |
| AKE (Akedo) | Long | 4H 21-EMA Trend Following | Significant weekly and 24-hour gains (16-25%). Monitoring for continuation of the uptrend with price holding above the 4H 21-EMA, indicating strong bullish sentiment. |

COMMODITIES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

| Ticker | Action | Strategy | Strategy & Selection Reason |
|---|---|---|---|
| XAU/USD (Gold) | Short | Pivot & Fibonacci Extension Levels | Current bearish short-term outlook, trading below $4,000. Seeking short entries on rejections of key resistance levels (e.g., $4,032, $4,060) or breakdown below support (e.g., $3,985), targeting Fibonacci extension levels to the downside. |
| WTI Crude Oil | Long | Pivot & Fibonacci Extension Levels | Strong bullish momentum, having broken above $100.70 resistance and eyeing $106.70. Looking for long entries on pullbacks to key pivot supports or breakouts above resistance, projecting targets via Fibonacci extensions. |

FOREX FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Short-Term

| Ticker | Action | Strategy | Strategy & Selection Reason |
|---|---|---|---|
| EUR/USD | Short | Supply/Demand Zone Breakdowns | General USD strength and hawkish central bank sentiment in the US. Seeking short opportunities on breakdowns from established supply zones or failure to hold key demand levels in the London session. |
| GBP/USD | Short | Supply/Demand Zone Breakdowns | Similar to EUR/USD, driven by overall USD strength and European macro news. Identifying short opportunities based on price action at short-term supply and demand zones, especially after BOE news. |

Long-Term Carry Swings

| Ticker | Action | Strategy | Strategy & Selection Reason |
|---|---|---|---|
| USD/JPY | Long | Trend Following / Support Rebound | Rebounding from 156.00 and looking to extend towards 157.00+, supported by general USD strength, though BoJ rate hike bets could cap upside. Considering long positions on confirmed rebounds from minor support levels. |
| AUD/USD | Short | Resistance Rejection | Given strong USD and general market caution, looking for short entries on rejections from key resistance levels, expecting continued downward pressure or range-bound trading against the greenback. |

INDIAN OPTIONS (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

| Ticker | Action | Strategy | Strategy & Selection Reason |
|---|---|---|---|
| NIFTY 50 | Call / Put | 15-Minute Opening Range Breakout | With Nifty extending losses, a downside breakout from the 15-minute opening range could signal further weakness (Put option). Conversely, a strong upside breakout could indicate a buying opportunity (Call option) if sentiment shifts. |
| BANKNIFTY | Call / Put | 15-Minute Opening Range Breakout | Similar to Nifty, utilizing the 15-minute opening range breakout strategy for intraday directional plays. Financial stocks are under pressure, so a downside breakout is a strong possibility. |
