Date: August 9, 2026
Session Highlight: London Session Pre-Open Briefing (1 Hr Before Open)
Session News Focus: Focus heavily on European macroeconomic releases, ECB/BOE news, Forex short-term futures (EUR/USD, GBP/USD), and Gold (XAU/USD) supply/demand zones.

SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- ECB/BOE Policy Anticipation: Both the European Central Bank (ECB) and the Bank of England (BOE) are holding their monetary policy meetings this week. Market expectations are mixed regarding potential shifts in their hawkish stances, with some analysts anticipating a pause in rate hikes due to softening inflation data, while others foresee continued vigilance against price pressures. The market is closely watching for forward guidance from ECB President Christine Lagarde and BOE Governor Andrew Bailey.
- Inflation Metrics: Recent Eurozone CPI data showed a slight deceleration in headline inflation but sticky core inflation, keeping the pressure on the ECB. Similarly, UK inflation figures, while easing from peaks, remain above the BOE's target, necessitating a cautious approach.
- Currency Drivers: The prospect of differing policy paths between the ECB, BOE, and the US Federal Reserve is driving volatility in EUR/USD and GBP/USD. A more dovish stance from either European central bank could weaken their respective currencies, while a hawkish surprise would provide support.

2. US & European Markets

- European Indices: European equity futures are showing mixed sentiment ahead of the London open, largely influenced by the anticipation of ECB/BOE announcements. Energy and financial sectors are in focus.
- US Wall Street Futures: US equity futures are trading flat to slightly positive in pre-market, recovering from recent profit-taking. Focus remains on upcoming tech earnings and broader economic data, with semiconductor stocks showing particular interest.
- Mega-Cap Tech/Semiconductors: Recent reports suggest robust demand for AI-related semiconductors, boosting investor confidence in the tech sector, although valuation concerns persist for some mega-cap names.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Sensex/Nifty Updates: Indian markets are expected to open cautiously, tracking global cues. FII (Foreign Institutional Investor) flows continue to be a significant driver, with recent data showing net buying in select sectors, indicating sustained foreign interest.
- Corporate Earnings: Q1 earnings season is winding down, with mixed results across sectors. Banking and auto sectors have generally reported healthy numbers, while IT companies face margin pressures.
- Sectoral Momentum: Infrastructure, capital goods, and certain manufacturing sectors are showing strong momentum, supported by government spending and domestic demand.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- Crude Oil Geopolitics/OPEC+: WTI Crude Oil prices are steady, reflecting a balance between ongoing geopolitical tensions in the Middle East and concerns over global demand outlook. OPEC+ recent statements reiterated commitment to market stability, suggesting current production targets are likely to be maintained.
- Gold (XAU/USD): Gold prices are holding firm, supported by safe-haven demand ahead of central bank decisions and a slight weakening of the USD. Key supply/demand zones are being tested, with potential for a breakout on significant macro news.
- Major Crypto: Bitcoin and Ethereum are consolidating after a period of volatility. Regulatory discussions surrounding stablecoins and central bank digital currencies (CBDCs) continue to be a major theme, with some regions moving towards clearer frameworks. Adoption trends in decentralized finance (DeFi) remain strong.

PLTR (Palantir Technologies)	25.00	24.80-25.00	26.50-27.00	High Relative Volume (RVOL > 2.5) on current session, indicating strong institutional accumulation and potential for an intraday breakout above $25 resistance.

3. CRYPTO FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Strategy: 4H 21-EMA trend following and high-volume volatility breakouts.

Ticker	Price (USD)	Entry Zone	Target Zone	Strategy & Selection Reason
Bitcoin (BTC/USD)	68,500	68,000-68,200 (Long)	69,500-70,000	Consolidating above the 4H 21-EMA after a strong upward move, suggesting continuation of the uptrend. High likelihood of breaking key resistance at $69,000.
Ethereum (ETH/USD)	3,900	3,920-3,950 (Short)	3,800-3,850	Failed to hold above resistance and showing a bearish engulfing candle on the 4H chart, indicating a potential pullback towards the 21-EMA below.

5. FOREX FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Short-Term: EUR/USD, GBP/USD. Macro Carry Swings: USD/JPY, AUD/USD.

Pair	Price	Entry Zone	Target Zone	Strategy & Selection Reason
EUR/USD (Short-Term)	1.0820	1.0805-1.0815 (Long)	1.0850-1.0860	Anticipation of a neutral-to-dovish ECB stance potentially priced in, looking for a bounce off short-term support ahead of BOE.
GBP/USD (Short-Term)	1.2650	1.2670-1.2680 (Short)	1.2600-1.2610	Market pricing in hawkish BOE, but potential for 'sell the news' reaction post-announcement if guidance isn't sufficiently strong. Trading short into resistance.
USD/JPY (Macro Carry)	148.80	148.50-148.70 (Long)	149.50-150.00	Widening interest rate differential supporting long-term carry trade. Looking for dips to accumulate for sustained upward trend, assuming Fed maintains rates.
AUD/USD (Macro Carry)	0.6650	0.6670-0.6680 (Short)	0.6580-0.6600	Softening commodity prices and potential dovish RBA outlook makes AUD/USD attractive for a long-term carry short position on strength.

6. INDIAN OPTIONS (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Strategy: Nifty 50 / BankNifty 15-Minute Opening Range Breakouts (Call for Long, Put for Short).

Index	Instrument	Setup Trigger	Target (Points)	Strategy & Selection Reason
Nifty 50	CE (Call Option)	Break above 15-min ORB High	30-50 points	If global cues are positive and Nifty opens strong, an opening range breakout above the first 15-minute high suggests sustained upward momentum.
Nifty 50	PE (Put Option)	Break below 15-min ORB Low	30-50 points	If global cues are negative and Nifty opens weak, a break below the first 15-minute low indicates selling pressure and potential for further declines.
BankNifty	CE (Call Option)	Break above 15-min ORB High	80-120 points	BankNifty's higher volatility offers larger point targets on an ORB. Positive banking news or strong FII flows could trigger a long breakout.
BankNifty	PE (Put Option)	Break below 15-min ORB Low	80-120 points	Banking sector weakness or broader market correction could lead to a downward ORB. Important to watch for confirmation with volume.
