Current Session Highlight: 🇺🇸 New York Session Pre-Open Briefing (1 Hr Before Open)

Session News Focus: Wall Street pre-market movers, US Federal Reserve news, mega-cap US stocks (NVDA, MSFT, TSLA), and WTI Crude Oil catalysts.

📰 SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- The Federal Reserve held interest rates steady at its latest meeting, keeping the target range for the federal funds rate at 3-3/4 to 4 percent. This decision was largely expected, as the Fed awaits further data on inflation, which it noted remains "elevated."
- Two Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) members, however, dissented, preferring a 1/4 percentage point rate hike, indicating persistent inflation concerns among some policymakers.
- Economic activity in the US is expanding at a strong pace, with resilient domestic spending and robust capital investment, though geopolitical developments introduce elevated uncertainty.
- Investors are pricing in a high probability of another rate hike by the Fed at its December meeting.
- The European Central Bank (ECB) also recently held rates steady but flagged upside inflation risks, providing some support to the Euro.

2. US & European Markets

- Wall Street futures show a mixed to negative sentiment in pre-market trading, with the S&P 500 (SPY) and Nasdaq 100 (QQQ) notably lower, while the Dow Jones (DIA) shows a smaller decline.
- Mega-cap tech stocks, including NVIDIA (NVDA), Microsoft (MSFT), and Tesla (TSLA), are experiencing some softness in pre-market, contributing to the overall cautious sentiment.
- Intel (INTC) shares plummeted significantly after its recent earnings report, dragging down sentiment across semiconductor stocks. This follows broader concerns in October about the pace of AI commercialization and Chinese memory competition, which caused a pullback in mega-cap tech.
- Apple (AAPL) recently surpassed Nvidia in market capitalization, highlighting a re-shuffling among top tech giants amidst market shifts.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- No specific live updates for Sensex/Nifty, corporate earnings, FII/DII flows, or sectoral momentum are available from the search results. However, the strategies for Indian equities and options will focus on intraday price action, like Opening Range Breakouts for Nifty 50 and BankNifty.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- WTI Crude Oil is trading around $102.95-$104.12 per barrel, showing some volatility. The market is reacting to geopolitical developments, including the possibility of US military action in the Middle East and reports of attacks on vessels in the Strait of Hormuz.
- European diesel futures have also risen following reports of attacks on Russian fuel targets.
- Gold (XAU/USD) is trading around $3,875.42. Key support and resistance levels are being watched by traders using pivot points.
- In the crypto market, breakout trading strategies are popular, with traders focusing on high-volume volatility breakouts and 4H 21-EMA trend following.
