Date: Wednesday, August 26, 2026

Session Highlight: New York Session Pre-Open Briefing (1 Hr Before Open)

Session News Focus: Wall Street pre-market movers, US Federal Reserve news, mega-cap US stocks (NVDA, MSFT, TSLA), and WTI Crude Oil catalysts.

SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- Inflation Concerns Persist Globally: Recent CPI readings across major economies indicate sticky inflation, raising speculation about the timing and pace of central bank easing cycles. The market is closely watching upcoming inflation data for definitive cues.
- ECB Hints at Data-Dependent Approach: European Central Bank officials have reiterated a data-dependent stance, with recent hawkish comments pushing EUR strength. Focus remains on industrial production and consumer confidence reports.
- BOJ Maintains Ultra-Loose Policy: The Bank of Japan continues its accommodative monetary policy, leading to persistent weakness in the JPY. Intervention risks remain a talking point as USD/JPY hovers near multi-decade highs.
- Emerging Market Volatility: Geopolitical tensions and commodity price fluctuations are creating headwinds for several emerging market currencies and bond markets.

2. US & European Markets

- US Futures Mixed Ahead of Open: S&P 500 and Nasdaq futures show slight weakness as investors digest recent corporate earnings and anticipate Fed Chair remarks. Pre-market movers indicate sector rotation.
- Mega-Cap Tech Under Scrutiny: NVDA, MSFT, and TSLA are showing mixed pre-market activity. NVDA is potentially facing profit-taking after a strong run, while MSFT shows resilience. TSLA remains volatile amidst production and demand concerns.
- Federal Reserve Commentary Awaited: Market participants are keenly awaiting any new signals from Federal Reserve officials regarding interest rate policy and the economic outlook, especially following recent robust employment data.
- Semiconductor Sector Volatility: The broader semiconductor index is experiencing choppy trading, influenced by demand outlook and supply chain developments.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Nifty and Sensex Eyeing Global Cues: Indian benchmarks are expected to open flat to marginally higher, tracking mixed global signals. FII inflows remain crucial for sustained upside momentum.
- Banking Sector in Focus: PSU and private banking stocks are in focus ahead of quarterly results and potential policy announcements from the RBI.
- FII/DII Flows: Institutional flows show a cautious approach, with FIIs registering minor net selling in the previous session, while DIIs provided support.
- Infrastructure and Capital Goods Momentum: The infrastructure and capital goods sectors are witnessing renewed buying interest on the back of government spending plans.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- WTI Crude Oil Volatility: Crude oil prices are reacting to fresh geopolitical developments and OPEC+ output discussions. Supply concerns are pushing prices higher, while demand worries cap gains.
- Gold Tests Key Resistance: Gold (XAU/USD) is holding near critical resistance levels, supported by persistent inflation fears and safe-haven demand amidst global uncertainties.
- Bitcoin Consolidates: Bitcoin (BTC) is consolidating after a recent rally, with traders looking for a clear breakout above key resistance. Regulatory news and institutional adoption continue to be primary drivers.
- Altcoin Market Mixed: The broader altcoin market is showing mixed performance, with some mid-cap cryptos experiencing volatility breakouts on higher volume.
