SESSION NEWS FOCUS: Wall Street pre-market movers, US Federal Reserve news, mega-cap US stocks (NVDA, MSFT, TSLA), and WTI Crude Oil catalysts.

SECTION 0: DAILY MACRO & FINANCIAL NEWS DIGEST

1. Global Macro & Central Banks

- The global inflation fight has entered a more challenging phase, with central banks focusing on the final return to inflation targets. The Federal Reserve is emphasizing incoming data over explicit forward guidance.
- Economic activity has shown more resilience than expected, complicating policymakers' assessment of whether current interest rates are restrictive enough.
- The European Central Bank (ECB) is highly data-dependent, debating if underlying price pressures and wage growth have eased sufficiently for inflation to return to target. The Bank of England (BOE) faces a similar dilemma, scrutinizing service-sector inflation and labor market dynamics.
- The Federal Reserve's next meeting is scheduled for September 16, 2026, with a current rate of 3.75%. The ECB's next meeting is September 10, 2026, with a current rate of 2.40%. The Bank of Japan (BOJ) has a current rate of 1.00%, with its next meeting on September 18, 2026.
- US consumers' median one-year inflation expectations remained unchanged at 3.6% in August 2026, though expected price growth for gas and food rose.
- India's central bank signaled a dovish pause, pushing back rate hike expectations to December 2026 or later.

2. US & European Markets

- Wall Street Pre-Market Movers: NVIDIA (NVDA) is up +1.5% at $231.80 pre-market, extending its AI-supply rally. Micron Technology and other semiconductor names are also showing gains. Microsoft (MSFT) is down -$6.39 (-1.28%) in pre-market at $493.31. Tesla (TSLA) is down -$1.00 (-0.27%) pre-market at $367.16.
- Mega-Cap Tech: Nvidia's CEO Jensen Huang highlighted strong demand for AI hardware, and a Nvidia-backed firm signed a multi-year deal with OpenAI. Nvidia stock is less than 5% below its record high. Microsoft is facing lawsuits from news organizations, and its stock dipped slightly. Tesla has launched a limited autonomous driving rollout, and Elon Musk mentioned that Cybercab production is "over 5 times faster."
- US Market Futures: Nasdaq-100 futures are approximately +0.4%. Wall Street concluded a dismal week on September 6, with the S&P 500 down 4.3% and Nasdaq down 5.8%.

3. Indian Markets & Dalal Street

- Indian equity markets are trading lower today, with Nifty below 23,600 and Sensex below 75,200.
- Nifty 50 is at 23557.45, down -0.33%, and BSE Sensex is at 75157.10, down -0.56% as of 1:41 PM IST.
- Financial Services and Oil & Gas sectors showed positive momentum recently, while IT and Media stocks underperformed.
- Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) sold ₹123.19 Cr, while Domestic Institutional Investors (DIIs) bought ₹1349.64 Cr on September 8, 2026.
- Paytm shares jumped 5% due to an AI push, significantly outperforming the Nifty 500.
- The INDIAVIX rose by 28.46% on June 4, signaling anticipated continued market volatility.

4. Commodities & Crypto Wire

- WTI Crude Oil: WTI crude oil is trading around $89.60, holding gains amid renewed hostilities in the Middle East and efforts to reopen the Strait of Hormuz. Geopolitical tensions and OPEC+ production cuts are tightening supply expectations. A breakout above $94 would target Fibonacci extension levels near $99.80 and $107. Conversely, a breakdown below $88 could lead to declines toward $87.40 and $86. High oil prices are adding to inflation concerns.
- Gold: Gold prices have been volatile, reacting to inflation data, interest rate expectations, and geopolitical risks. Gold hit $4,200/oz in April 2026 on rate-cut optimism and geopolitical risk.
- Crypto: US spot Bitcoin and Ether ETFs saw strong inflows after Fed Chair Powell hinted at additional rate cuts before year-end, signaling renewed institutional appetite. Higher oil-driven fuel costs and elevated inflation risks could pressure crypto.

🎯 STRATEGY-BASED DAILY TICKER SELECTION & SECTOR CONSTRAINTS

INDIAN EQUITIES (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Ticker	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
PAYTM	Long	Showing strong momentum (+5% today) due to enterprise AI push, outperforming Nifty 500, indicating a potential golden cross or 50-SMA support bounce.
COALINDIA	Long	Top Nifty 50 gainer in a recent session, suggesting strong underlying momentum and potential 20/50 EMA golden cross.

US EQUITIES

Large-Cap (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
NVDA	Long	Strong pre-market rally (+1.5%), driven by AI demand and OpenAI deal. Aims to capitalize on positive momentum, potentially on a 21-day EMA pullback if minor profit-taking occurs, or a continuation of a 50-day SMA rejection strategy if it consolidates near resistance before breaking higher.
MSFT	Short / Monitor	Down in pre-market (-1.28%) following news organization lawsuits. Could present a short opportunity on a 50-day SMA rejection or if it fails to hold 21-day EMA support on open.
TSLA	Short / Monitor	Slightly down in pre-market. Despite Cybercab news, recent price action indicates potential weakness or consolidation, fitting a 21-day EMA pullback or 50-day SMA rejection for a potential short entry if broader market sentiment weighs.

Mid-Cap & Small-Cap (STRICTLY LONG-ONLY)

Ticker	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
SCREEN REQUIRED	Long	Actively screen for Stage-2 VCP (Volatility Contraction Pattern) breakouts or high Relative Volume (RVOL > 2.0) breakouts among US Mid-Cap and Small-Cap stocks upon market open.

CRYPTO FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
BTC/USD	Long / Short	Recent strong inflows into spot Bitcoin ETFs suggest renewed institutional interest. Trade using 4H 21-EMA trend following, looking for high-volume volatility breakouts in either direction. Monitor for bullish continuation or bearish reversal if market sentiment shifts.
ETH/USD	Long / Short	Ether ETFs mirrored Bitcoin's recovery with strong inflows. Apply 4H 21-EMA trend following and high-volume volatility breakout strategies.

COMMODITIES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
XAU/USD (Gold)	Long / Short	Gold is sensitive to inflation concerns and rate expectations. Recent price movements show it reacts to Fed sentiment and geopolitical risks. Trade using Pivot and Fibonacci extension levels. Bullish if breaking above key resistance ($4200 was a past high), bearish if breaking below support as inflation concerns abate or dollar strengthens.
WTI Crude Oil	Long	Currently trading around $89.60 and holding gains amidst Middle East hostilities and OPEC+ cuts, signaling tightening supply. Look for a long opportunity on a confirmed break above $90, targeting Fibonacci extension levels toward $99.80-$100 or $107 if bullish momentum accelerates. Use $88 as a key support/pivot level.

FOREX FUTURES (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Short-Term

Ticker	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
EUR/USD	Short	Broader Dollar dynamics, especially from USD/JPY carry trade, are weighing on EUR/USD, even with ECB rate hike expectations. Favors USD strength, looking for short opportunities if resistance holds or breaks down. Currently stabilizing above 100-day moving average.
GBP/USD	Long	Showing a cleaner backdrop for USD-weakness scenarios with a short-term inverse head and shoulders pattern forming. Strong breakout recently on USD-weakness. Look for long entries on pullbacks to support levels (e.g., around 1.3600) with confirmation.

Long-Term Carry Swing

Ticker	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
USD/JPY	Long (Carry)	Remains a key FX market driver due to the crowded carry trade. Fundamental divergence with high US inflation and low Japanese inflation supports long-term carry trade on USD/JPY. Look for long entries on pullbacks.
AUD/USD	Long	Experienced breakout acceleration with recent USD-weakness. Monitor for continuation of this trend, considering it for long-term carry swing trades if the fundamental divergence with US and Australian inflation/rates supports AUD strength.

INDIAN OPTIONS (BI-DIRECTIONAL)

Ticker	Direction	Strategy & Selection Reason
Nifty 50 Futures	Call (Long) / Put (Short)	Implement 15-Minute Opening Range Breakout (ORB) strategy. Mark the high and low of the first 15-minute candle (9:15 AM - 9:30 AM IST). Go long (Call option) if a subsequent 5-minute candle closes decisively above the high with strong volume. Go short (Put option) if it closes decisively below the low. Stop loss at the opposite end of the range. Ensure volume confirmation and align with Nifty's overall direction.
BankNifty Futures	Call (Long) / Put (Short)	Apply 15-Minute Opening Range Breakout (ORB) strategy, similar to Nifty 50. Bank Nifty is a popular instrument for ORB due to its volatility and meaningful rupee moves. Look for confirmed breakouts with strong volume; set stop loss at the opposite end of the range.
